This Tuesday's Agenda

Avenue Grill Seeks Ownership Change

Avenue Grill Owner Frank Baker will introduce Matt Hasam of Quincy who may become the new owner. Baker and Hasam are seeking the membership's support for the transfer of the restaurant's Beer and Wine license. Mr. Hasam is also asking for support for his application for a 36A Take Out License.

Pope John Paul II Academy Facilities Director Bill Heenan is invited to meet with us regarding the dumpsters and other issues related to the operation of Pope John Paul II Academy.

Boston Shines 2009

Mayor Menino is again spearheading the citywide spring cleanup effort. The cleanup day will be Saturday, April 25th. Please join us in front of the Sugar Bowl at 9 a.m. Concentration areas include the front of Saint Margaret Church, Sharon's Park and the lot at Howell and Washburn Streets. More details at the meeting.

CityRoots Help Sought for Howell/Washburn Lot

On behalf of the neighborhood, Howell Street resident Desmond Rohan has applied to CityRoots, the community and green space development organization. Mr. Rohan's application seeks an in-kind grant for the development of a pocket park at the intersection of Howell, Washburn and Dorchester Avenue. If the application is successful, this will be the fourth year our neighborhood has worked with CityRoots, which served a crucial role in the development of Sharon's Park.

By-Law Revised First Draft

Draft by-laws will be distributed for a month long review by the membership. A vote to accept, amend or reject this draft is scheduled for May.

At Large and District 2 Council Candidates Welcome

At large Council Candidate Andrew Kinneally has requested the opportunity to say a few words at our meeting. All other At Large and District 2 Council Candidates are also welcome to join him. A Candidates' night will also be scheduled in the fall.
